

our craft beer story

Established in 1931, Archipelago Brewery Company was the first commercial brewery in Singapore. Through the 1930s, with its small batch brewing techniques and excellent product, it was the pioneering and most influential brewery in Singapore. In 1939, the brewery was annexed by the British who, in 1941, sold it to Malayan Breweries.

Inspired by the adventure, romance and craftsmanship of the original brewery, Archipelago has once again been revived with a range of bespoke handcrafted beers brewed by our award winning brewmaster, Fal Allen.

The Queen & Mangosteen serves 6 of our finest beers, with special 'seasonal' brews available throughout the year.

sparkling & rosé wine

	Bottle
Lindauer Brut NV (New Zealand)	$68
Light and fresh with delicate fruit aromas. A rich medley of citrus fruits and toasty yeast. Medium dry and very easy drinking.

Deinhard Sparkling Rose de Blanc et Noir NV (Germany)	$70
A delicate, sparkling rosé that is reminiscent of fresh strawberries and ripe peaches with a fruity but zesty follow through. Its fine bubbles sit elegantly on the palate with a well balanced mouthfeel. Excellent aperitif or paired with delicate seafood.

Pfeiffer Ensemble Rosé '05 (Rutherglen, Vic. Australia)	$85
It has an attractive deep pink colour. An ensemble of six grape varieties; Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Shiraz, Cab Franc, Viognier, Malbec. This is a perfumed wine with nuances of summer berries and some musk.

Pencarrow Chardonnay Martinborough (New Zealand)	$70
Vibrant aromas of passion fruit, elderflower, green herbs and hint of stone fruits. The palate is explosive with rich and succulent fruit. Very refreshing.

Watershed Sauvignon Blanc Semillon, Margaret River 2008 (Australia)	$75
Aromas of sweet lemon, lime blossom and lychees, which are complemented by the more subtle Semillon aromas of lemongrass and gooseberry. On the palate, the sweet fruity flavours of citrus and tropical fruits continue, balanced by a crisp acidity level.

The Ned Pinot Gris Marlborough (New Zealand)	$75
Full fruit flavours of pears, nectarine and peaches. A wonderful fresh, bright wine with lovely clean dryness.

Watershed Shiraz, Margaret River 2005 (Australia) $80

Complex aromas of raspberries and cherry plums, mixed with hints of liquorice, nutmeg, cinnamon and pepper. These spicy characters are the result of maturation in French and American oak barrels and combined with a velvety tannin structure to give the wine richness and a persistent finish. This wine can be enjoyed now, and will further develop in the bottle for the next five to seven years.

Little Rebel Pinot Noir 2006 (Australia) $85

Pinot Noir should look and taste like Pinot Noir! To start, the colour will be vibrant and bright. Fragrant strawberry, cherry and plum with spicy oak. the palate is medium bodied and flavoursome.

Punt Road Cabernet Sauvignon 2003 (Australia) $85

Cabernet Sauvignon was made in a full-bodied, elegant style. Perfumed aromas of cassis and violets are balanced by beautiful French oak. The palate is rich with savoury varietal flavours and finishes with fine powdery tannins and subtle cherry oak. Bottled under a screw cap closure, this wine will reward cellaring for 10 years and beyond.

pimm's & lemonade

The quintessential British cocktail finally finds a home in Singapore! Quaffed throughout the Summer by ladies and gentlemen at such classic sporting events as Wimbledon and the Henley Regatta, this deceptively alcoholic beverage is wonderfully refreshing and comes mixed with lemonade, mint, cucumber, orange and strawberry. Give it a try, you'll love it, and your English is guaranteed to get posher with every sip!
